

Woodspring Wings Model Aircraft Club

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION

1. PRIVACY POLICY

The Woodspring Wings Model Aircraft Club, hereafter referred to as “the club”, are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This policy explains when and why we collect personal information about people who join the club by whatever means, how we use it, the conditions under which we may disclose it to others, how we keep it secure and your rights in relation to your personal data. We may change this policy from time to time, all members will be informed when any changes are made, and all members can request a copy by contacting the Club Secretary.

By becoming a member of the club, you're agreeing to be bound by this Policy.

All members' data is stored in an encrypted password protected database held by the club Membership Secretary. Only Committee Officers are allowed access to the data. Any questions regarding this policy and our privacy practices should be sent by email to: spitfire@woodspringwings.co.uk

2. HOW WE COLLECT INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

We obtain information about you when you apply to become a member of the club either online with the British Model Flying Association (BMFA), via telephone, or in person.

3. WHAT TYPE OF INFORMATION IS COLLECTED ABOUT YOU

The information we collect might include your name, address, email address, telephone number, gender, and email address. The legal bases for the processing of your personal data are to enable the club to fulfil its contractual obligations with the BMFA Insurers and provide membership services.

4. HOW IS YOUR INFORMATION USED

We may use your information to:

- a. process your membership
- b. to carry out our obligations arising from your membership
- c. seek your views or comments on matters relating to the club and model aircraft flying
- d. notify you of changes to our services
- e. send you communications which you have requested and that may be of interest to you. These may include information about club events and contests and other club related matters, also information from the BMFA that may be of interest.

5. HOW LONG WE RETAIN YOUR INFORMATION

We will hold your personal information on our systems for as long as is necessary to carry out our obligations in relation to your membership, or as long as is set out in any relevant agreement between us. Where an individual persons club membership lapses your information will be securely kept for a period of 12 months, after which your information will be deleted.

6. WHO HAS ACCESS TO YOUR INFORMATION

We will not sell or rent your information to third parties.

We will not share your information with third parties for marketing purposes.

All members of the club must also be members of the BMFA, by joining the club you give consent for your personal data to be shared with the BMFA to enable provision of BMFA membership services. Please see the BMFA privacy policy at: <https://www.bmfa.org/Privacy-Policy>

The club will not release your information to third parties beyond the club unless we are required to do so by law, for example, by a court order or for the purposes of prevention of fraud or other crime.

7. HOW YOU CAN ACCESS AND UPDATE YOUR INFORMATION

The accuracy of your information is important to us. You can check the information we hold is correct on the BMFA membership portal website and update the information if necessary directly through the website, or by email to: spitfire@woodspringwings.co.uk

8. YOUR RIGHTS

a. The right to access.

You have the right to confirm as to whether or not we process your personal data and, where we do, access to the personal data, together with certain additional information. That additional information includes details of the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned and the recipients of the personal data. Providing the rights and freedoms of others are not affected, we will supply to you a copy of your personal data. The first copy will be provided free of charge, but additional copies may be subject to a reasonable fee. You can access your personal data by visiting the BMFA membership portal.

b. The right to rectification.

You have the right to have any inaccurate personal data about you rectified and, considering the purposes of the processing, to have any incomplete personal data about you completed.

c. The right to erasure.

In some circumstances you have the right to the erasure of your personal data without undue delay. Those circumstances include: the personal data being no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which the data was collected or otherwise processed, you are no longer a club member and wish the data not to be held for our standard 12 months. Please note a request for data erasure for a current member would require that member to forfeit membership. The data we keep for each individual member is required for the club to fulfill its obligations.

d. The right to restrict processing.

In some circumstances you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Those circumstances are you contest the accuracy of the personal data; processing is unlawful, but you oppose erasure; we no longer need the personal data for the purposes of our processing, but you require personal data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, and you have objected to processing, pending the verification of that objection. Where processing has been restricted on this basis, we may continue to store your personal data. However, we will only otherwise process it: with your consent, for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person; or for reasons of important public interest.

e. The right to object to processing.

You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for direct electronic communications purposes. If you make such an objection, we will cease to process your personal data for this purpose.

f. The right to data portability.

To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal data is that the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are party and such processing is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive your personal data from us in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format. However, this right does not apply where it would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

g. The right to complain to a supervisory authority.

If you consider that our processing of your personal information infringes data protection laws, you have a legal right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office: <https://ico.org.uk>

h. The right to withdraw consent.

To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal information is consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of processing before the withdrawal.

You may exercise any of your rights in relation to your personal data by written notice to us or by using your BMFA membership portal when logged into their website
